

COURTENAY LINE per Charles Worthy's "digression"

1 - Atho, built a castle at Courtenay, Gatenois, France

2 - son

3 - Milo, elder son, Lord of Courtenay

4 - [unproven that he was Milo's son] - Reginald de Courtenay, d 27 Sep 1194m1
- unknown

5 - William de Courtenay, elder son, d bef 1209m Avis D'Aincourt, d 31 Jul 1209

6 - Robert, died at his Manor of Iwerne Courtenay, County Dorset, 26 Jul 1242, bur Ford Abbey.m Mary de Redvers, of Vernon; many years a widow; Abbess of Quarr, in the Isle of Wight; Abbess of Pratelles, in Normandy

7 - John Courtenay, eldest son, succeeded to the Barony of Okehampton; d 1273, bur Ford Abbeym Isabella, dau of Hugh de Vere, Earl of Oxford

8 - Sir Hugh Courtenay, Knight, heir, b1250; bur Cowick, Feb 129Im Eleanor, dau of Hugh De Spencer; she died in 1238

9 - Hugh de Courtenay, eldest son, b1275, succeeded to the Barony of Okehampton; eventually made Earl of Devon, died in 1340m Agnes, daughter of Lord St.
John

10 - four sons and two daughters

10 - John , eldest son, Abbot of Tavistock from1334, died1349

10 - the second son Sir Hugh Courtenay, succeeded to the earldom; died 1377 married Margaret de Bohun, dau of Humphry, Earl of Hereford, and granddau of King Edward I

11 - eldest son, Sir Hugh Courtenay, born 1327, died bef 1377

12 - Hugh - only son, died bef 1377 m Matilda Plantagenet

11 - William, became Archbishop of Canterbury.

11 - Sir Peter, was Constable of Windsor, grand standard bearer, and chamberlain; died 1405, bur Exeter Cathedral

11 - sixth son, Sir Philip Courtenay, was seated at Powderham

11 - large family

11 - Edward Courtenay, of Godlington, died bef 1377

12 - Edward Courtenay, b 1357, became Earl 1377; known as the "blind earl," d 1419

13 - Edward, knighted 1399, d bef 1419 m Eleanor, second dau of Roger Mortimer, died childless

13 - Hugh, b 1389, succeeded to the earldom 5 Dec 1419 m a daughter of the Lord Talbot

14 - Thomas, Earl of Devon, died at the Abbey of Abingdon, believed of poison, 3 Feb 1458 m 1422 Margaret Beaufort

15 - Thomas, eldest son, earl for three years;
prisoner at Towton, attainted, executed

15 - Henry, beheaded at Salisbury 4 Mar 1466.

15 - John, youngest son, regained the earldom, but died at Tewkesbury 14 May 1471

#12 Edw m2 Matilda, daughter of Thomas Lord Camoys; she died in 1467

12 - Sir Hugh Courtenay, of Haccombe and Boconnoc

13 - ?

14 - Edward - created Earl of Devon by patent 26 Oct 1485
m his cousin, Elizabeth, dau of Sir Philip Courtenay of Molland

15 - Sir William Courtenay, Knight of the Bath, d spring 1511 at Greenwich m Katherine Plantagenet, dau of King Edward IV, youngest sister of Elizabeth, King Henry's queen.

16 - Henry, made Marquessate of Exeter 18 Jun 1525; beheaded 9 Jun 1539

17 - Edward Courtenay, b 1527, Earl of Devon 1553, d Padua 4 Oct 1556

16 - Margaret, b c 1498; died before her husband, m Henry, Lord Herbert, eldest son of Chas Somerset, Earl of Worcester

13 - Elizabeth first dau m John Tretherffe - their GRANDSON Tho had

1 - dau Eliz who m John Vivian & had son John Vivian

2 - Margaret, m1 Edward Courtenay, of Wotton, m2 Richard Buller of Tregarriek

13 - Isabell m Wm Mohun of Hall

13 - Maud m Sir John Arundell

13 - Florence m John Trelawny 1468

7 - son
7 - Avis
m John Neville

6 - William
6 - Reginald

5 - Robert de Courtenay, younger son, d 1209 or before m Alice de Romele, dau of the north country lord of Skipton, Sheriff of Cumberland

(4) Reginald de Courtenay came to England in 1152 and m2 - Matilda, younger dau of Maud, Baroness of Oakhampton

3 - Josceline, younger son, Count of Edessa